about inIVA

inIVA creates exhibitions, publications, multimedia, education and research projects ...

inIVA's programme of exhibitions and talks features artists and thinkers who explore the creative possibilities provided by the constant interaction of cultures in the contemporary world.

Our publications, library and website offer wide-ranging voices and viewpoints that present the cross-cultural aspects of the visual arts in a wider perspective.

Commissioning new work across a range of media, inIVA is a London-based arts agency that thrives on the city's cosmopolitan mix, whilst also collaborating with partner venues throughout the UK and worldwide.

Contact us if you would like to join our free mailing list and receive regular information about inIVA's events and activities. Or, if you would like our latest news by email, you can subscribe by visiting clicking on 'join' under the 'inIVA mailing list' section.
